HATRY. Louis W. Hatry, of West Hartford and Palm Beach, Fla., died Tuesday (March 1, 1988) at Hartford Hospital. Born in New Orleans, La., he had lived in Port Arthur, Texas, prior to moving to Hartford as a young man to work for the American Radio Relay League. He was later employed by the Hartford Times as an organizer and editor of the radio section. Mr. Murphy, the late editor of the Hartford Times and a good friend, allowed him to have living quarters on the top floor of the Times until he was married. Mr. Hatry was well-known for the radio articles he wrote that were published throughout the United States and Europe. He was a former president of the National Electronics Distributors Association. At a later date he opened his first wholesale electronics firm, Hatry & Young, now Hatry Electronics Inc. of Connecticut. Mr. Hatry was also the owner of businesses in New Haven, Waterbury, Stratford and the former Sceli's Electronics, now merged with Hatry of Hartford. He was a former member of the Hartford Golf Club, the City Club and was an active member and now an honorary member of the Palm Beach Old Guard Society, Breakers Hotel Golf Course, Palm Beach, Fla. He is survived by his wife, Dorothy (Bates) Hatry; a daughter, Mrs. Thomas (Gail) Wolcott of West Hartford; a sister, Miss Lucille Hatry of Beaumont, Texas; a grandson, Jeffrey Wolcott of Bolton; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Louis Hatry Jr. of South Windsor; and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Raymond Peck of Middle Haddam. He was predeceased by a son, Louis Hatry Jr., and a daughter, Deslys Hatry. Private funeral service and burial will be held at the convenience of the family. There are no calling hours. Memorial contributions may be made to either the Newington Childrens Hospital, 181 E. Cedar St., Newington, or to the Hartford Easter Seals Center, 80 Coventry St., Hartford. Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home, 136 S. Main St., West Hartford, has charge of arrangements.
